Nancee Ronning Named Chief Commercial Officer of BNSF Logistics

May 14, 2018

Dallas, TX – BNSF Logistics, LLC, a leading multi-modal third-party logistics service provider, announced today that Nancee Ronning has been named Chief Commercial Officer (CCO), effective immediately.

Nancee brings more than 20 years of experience in sales, marketing, and account and relationship management to this newly created position. Most recently, Nancee served as President for Print Craft, a commercial printing and packaging company based in Minnesota. She also spent more than eight years in strategic sales, marketing, and account management leadership roles at C.H. Robinson and prior to that held various positions with Merrill Corporation and GE Capital.

“We are excited to welcome Nancee to the BNSF Logistics executive team. We are confident that her experience and expertise will provide an important level of leadership necessary to elevate our firm among 3PLs and other transportation services providers,” Dan Curtis, BNSF Logistics President, said.
