

3 Ways Introverts Can Manifest Their Dream Clients

Be inspired. Step into your power.

As an introvert, you might want to say 'C'est la vie' and give up on growing your business. I get it. Putting yourself out there, searching for your dream clients can be daunting. I'm Sandi D., the Queen of Podcast Zen & introvert with a capital 'I.' I'm going to share three ways you can step into your power and manifest your dream clients as an introverted entrepreneur.

1) Connect with other introverted entrepreneurs.

Finding a business community where you can share your expertise and learn from others in a 'safe space' is key. Look for people who share your passion! It doesn't matter if they're not in the same niche as long as they share your vision for creating a soul-driven business. Develop trust by reaching out and providing support back to one another.

If you're having trouble finding the right community, then create your own. Invite like-minded introvert business women to your inner circle.

2) Conquer your fear of public speaking.

Public speaking may leave you feeling drained. But once you find the confidence to share your story, people will come back for more knowledge, insights, and help.

I was always terrified of public speaking--think sweaty palms and heart palpitations--but found a way to conquer my fear by starting the All Things Relax with Sandi D. podcast. It's a safe space where I can be myself and connect with guests and listeners from around the world.

I've interviewed many inspiring & creative women who were excited to share their stories and connect with potential dream clients. So being a guest on a podcast is a great way to have your voice heard.

3) Be an expert in your field & Step into your power.

You may find it easier to manifest your dream clients if you do something 'introverted' such as provide expertise and insight rather than using bro-marketer sales techniques.

Become a go-to person people will come back to for advice, insight, and expertise. This is why I created The Introvert's Guide to Rocking Your Podcast to help other introverts find their voice, step into their power, and share their knowledge.

Remember: As an introverted entrepreneur you do not have to change who you are to be successful. Us introverts tend to be introspective and reflective, so be sure to tap into these strengths when you're connecting with others!

Introverts, be inspired. Step into your power!
