

ECS Financial Services Earns Better Business Bureau's Complaint Free Award for 2016

Northbrook, IL, March 28, 2017 — ECS Financial Services proudly accepts the 2016 Better Business Bureau Complaint Free Award after a year of committed service to their clients. The award reinforces the company's reputation as an ethical, honest, customer service focused lease accounting firm.

"Our clients rely on us to handle various aspects of their businesses, and we've made it our mission to provide world-class services. I am extremely proud of everyone at ECS Financial for taking the time to listen to each and every client and helping them to the fullest extent of our capabilities," said CEO, Sam Oliva. "We look forward to another complaint free year in 2017."

The company began in 1962 as a full-service accounting firm. Since then, it has turned its attention to lease accounting and has developed specialized services catering to the leasing industry.

Despite offering a wide range of services, ECS still manages to provide a team of accountants and experts to every client. It's with this business model that they have been able to provide superior service for 55 years.

"This award perfectly reaffirms what ECS stands for: excellent customer service. Our ability to provide superior financial services, while ensuring our clients receive the personal attention that they have come to expect is what sets us apart from other accounting firms. When you work with ECS, you know you will be taken care of," said Nancy Geary, ECS Shareholder.

In order to receive the award, ECS must have received zero complaints over the course of the year. As a BBB accredited business with an A+ rating, ECS has proved its dedication to maintaining the Bureau's high standards. The BBB has deemed that ECS builds trust, advertises honestly, honors promises, safeguards privacy, embodies integrity, and is transparent in business practices.
