

BARONS Jewelers Announces Annual Two-Day Tacori Spring Passion Event

In addition to offering Tacori's entire jewelry inventory at their showroom, the retailer will also pay the sales tax on all Tacori jewelry purchased during the promotion (with some exclusions).

DUBLIN, California, April 1, 2019 (Newswire.com) - This week, BARONS Jewelers will hold the annual Tacori Spring Passion Event at their showroom in Dublin, California. The promotion, which takes place on April 5th and 6th from 10AM to 6PM, allows customers to shop Tacori's entire inventory of engagement rings, wedding bands, and fashion jewelry.

Additionally, BARONS Jewelers will pay the sales tax on all Tacori purchases made during these two days. (The tax-free offer excludes engagement ring center stones and is not valid on prior purchases or layaways.)

See first-hand the handcrafted details of each Tacori jewelry piece, most notably the delicate crescent arcs incorporated into almost every design. Try on lavish two-carat engagement rings from the hugely popular RoyalT collection and match them with a diamond-studded wedding band. Shoppers can even explore the latest collection from the designer -- the Coastal Crescent line, modeled after the traditional solitaire ring but with a Tacori twist.

Booking an appointment for the event in advance is highly recommended, as every person who RSVPs gets dedicated time with a Tacori specialist during their visit. Make an appointment by visiting the event page on the retailer's website.

To learn more about the Tacori products and collections that will be available at the event, contact BARONS Jewelers at (925) 278-6971 or email their team at info@baronsjewelers.com.
