

ECS Financial Services Releases Recruitment Video

Northbrook, Ill., August 30, 2017— ECS Financial Services is proud to announce the release of a recruitment video that shows what it's like to work at ECS. With this video, the accounting and financial services firm highlights their growth and dedication to adding top talent to the successful team of professionals.

The video features current ECS Financial employees and explores the company's culture through interviews and candid footage. Interviews with the management team add a level of transparency to the corporate structure and show the company's dedication to creating a professional, welcoming, and client-focused workplace.

Information about the company's history, growth outlook, location, and culture can be seen in the video. View the video at <https://www.ecsfinancial.com/why-ecs>.

The company started in 1962 as an accounting firm operated by one accountant. With the guidance of the current CEO, Sam Oliva, it quickly expanded into a financial services company catering to both clients in the equipment leasing industry and clients in need of traditional accounting services.

ECS Financial now employs over 40 people and is continually looking to add talented accounting and CPA professionals. The recruiting video embodies ECS Financial's commitment to hiring world-class employees and creating an environment that accommodates the modern workforce.

ECS Financial encourages professionals of all experience levels to explore opportunities with the quickly expanding company.

"We truly look forward to speaking with anyone about their career choices," said CEO Sam Oliva. "We hope our career video is helpful for professionals looking to choose to work at our industry leading firm."
