Legendary Actress, Author, Activist Denise Nicholas Named Career Mastered National Living Legend

Annual Women's History Leadership Awards; Honorees are Exceptional Role Models of What a Woman Can Do

Detroit, USA, February 1, 2018 (Newswire.com) - Detroit – Legendary Actress Denise Nicholas has been named Career Mastered National Living Legend for 2018. Nicholas will be honored during the Annual Women’s History Month Leadership in Action Awards Charity on Thursday, March 15, 2018, Roostertail Waterfront Entertainment Complex in Detroit, Michigan. The Awards Evening of Elegance is the highlight of Michigan’s Women’s History Month calendar, routinely attracting a sellout crowd.

Denise Nicholas is an American actress, author and social activist who was involved in the Civil Rights Movement. She is known primarily for her role as high-school guidance counselor Liz McIntyre on the ABC comedy-drama series Room 222, and for her role as Councilwoman Harriet DeLong on the NBC/CBS drama series In the Heat of the Night. In addition to Nicholas, Leadership in Action Awards will be presented to amazing women leaders in the following cities: Charlotte, North Carolina on March 6, Detroit, Michigan on March 15, and New York City, New York on March 24. The complete list of the Class of 2018 is available at www.careermastered.com.

Linwick & Associates, LLC in conjunction with its sponsors will honor the achievements of women who have made a compelling mark on business. Honorees represent powerful women across diverse industries and disciplines. These women leaders are Game Changers who have mastered their work and have learned the necessary steps to move ahead and build successful careers. The honorees are exceptionally strong role models of what a woman can do.

"We're thrilled to honor Denise Nicholas for the compelling mark she has made to shape America and women's history while inspiring future generations."
