Smyth Jewelers Hosts Three Estate Jewelry Shows This Month Featuring One-of-a-Kind Vintage Pieces

The events will feature hand-selected styles in estate and vintage jewelry, timepieces, and even diamond cuts.

MARYLAND, July 9, 2019 (NewsWire.com) - When searching for the perfect gift for a loved one, newer isn't always better. In fact, choosing a vintage gift can be even more special than a present featuring the latest technology.

With this sentiment in mind, Smyth Jewelers will host a series of estate jewelry shows across all three of their Maryland store locations later this month. These events will showcase an extended selection of their current estate offerings, including jewelry from a variety of eras, timepieces from luxury watchmakers, and loose diamonds in an array of vintage cuts.

Vintage jewelry aficionados will be happy to learn that Smyth Jewelers will have hand-crafted jewelry pieces from the Georgian, Arts and Crafts, and Art Deco periods, as well as many others. Additionally, shoppers can browse the retailer's hand-selected assortment of vintage timepieces, including designs from Rolex, Cartier, and Patek Philippe.

For those looking for a one-of-a-kind diamond to complete their engagement ring setting, look to Smyth Jewelers' lineup of vintage diamond cuts, which include Old European, rose cut, and Old Mine cut jewels.

No matter the preference, the Maryland-based jewelry retailer will have something to satisfy even the most finicky shoppers. Find jewelry pieces and pre-owned watches with a unique story to tell at Smyth's estate jewelry shows.

The show schedule is as follows:

- Annapolis Town Centre: July 20-23
- Ellicott City Turf Valley: July 24-25
- Timonium: July 26-27
