

Rumanoff's Fine Jewelry Debuts New Jewelry Offerings From Forevermark, Tacori, and Hearts on Fire at Their Showroom This Month

From dazzling new diamond cuts to contemporary bridal and fashion jewelry collections, this Hamden-based retailer continually strives to give its customers the very best in fine jewelry

HAMDEN, Connecticut, July 16, 2018 (Newswire.com) - Last month at JCK Las Vegas and Luxury, two of the largest trade shows in the jewelry industry, Rumanoff's Fine Jewelry worked hard to bring back to Connecticut some of the latest offerings in the fine jewelry world.

As a result of these efforts, visitors to Rumanoff's showroom can explore new luxurious additions from top brands like Forevermark, Tacori, and Hearts on Fire starting this month.

First and foremost, Rumanoff's Fine Jewelry is now a Forevermark Black Label authorized partner. Although the Hamden-based jewelry retailer has already developed a partnership with the Forevermark brand, this new affiliation allows Rumanoff's to sell the entire Black Label diamond collection.

This exceptional collection consists of five exquisite diamond shapes, each displaying an unprecedented show of symmetry and quality that can only be expected from a Forevermark Black Label diamond. Available in round, oval, cushion, square, and heart shapes, these diamonds are renowned for having the most precision in the diamond industry. Couple this fact with the Forevermark diamond crystal, and the result is an unsurpassed compass of light, scintillation and brilliance – diamonds that show the most sparkle in the world. Moreover, cutting the fancy shape diamonds, in the way that only Black Label fancies are cut, actually achieves an inner fire comparable to that of round brilliant diamonds.

In order to become a Forevermark Black Label partner, retailers must show that they provide extraordinary customer service and employ an expert understanding of diamonds. Because of Rumanoff's dedication to success, specifically with engagement rings and loose diamonds, the Forevermark brand has chosen them to join the ranks of the Black Label elite.

Additionally, Rumanoff's Fine Jewelry has also expanded their Tacori and Hearts on Fire offerings for their distinguished clientele.

Starting in July, shoppers at Rumanoff's showroom can browse through Tacori's entire colored gemstone fashion collection as well as the brand's all-new 14 karat bridal collection which will arrive in late July or August. This reinvigorating addition to the Tacori bridal line boasts a lower starting price point and totally new styles for couples looking to save some money on their special day, while still receiving a hand-made product that is elegantly styled with unsurpassed quality and workmanship.

Rumanoff's has also added two new beautiful collections to their Hearts on Fire showcase. The best part about this news? In order to make room for these new pieces, the retailer will be selling select Hearts on Fire jewelry items at 50% off.
