Desert Plus

Visibly effective skincare from Earth's most potent plants

In our mystical Sonoran Desert, with extreme environmental changes and harsh climates, we find plants known for their incredible longevity, beauty and power to adapt. They have a unique ability to renew and restore themselves, and they do the same for your skin. We've packaged that special power in our proprietary Sia formulas, each with specific skin benefits that bring your complexion to its healthiest, most optimal state. Whether your skin is mature, sensitive, blemish-prone, dry or relatively low-maintenance, Sia has a formula that will help you look and feel more beautiful every time you use it. Healthy, glowing skin shows all over: you smile confidently, laugh louder, and live more fearlessly. Best of all you can trust that our ingredients are straight from nature.

Pure Plant Power

Prickly Pear

We love this native Sonoran Desert natural because it contains the highest level of Betelains of any plant on Earth! These SUPER antioxidants are proven to protect against aging, nourish skin cells and fight free radical damage. Our Prickly Pear formulas leave skin visibly rejuvenated and energized.

Aloe

Soothing, healing Aloe Vera from the Sonoran Desert is a naturally nourishing moisturizer. Sia only uses rich and potent, pure Aloe Vera juice with no dilution or adulteration. Packed with skin-quenching nutrients like zinc, magnesium and 20 amino acids, it also contains the 'youth mineral', Potassium. Discover our formulas special abilities to help repair cells and renew skin to healthy hydration levels.

Jojoba

The most effective solution for dry skin originates in our hot dry Sonoran Desert: naturally hydrating Jojoba. This liquid Wax Esther has a special ability to work with your skin's cell chemistry to restore moisture and return skin to its healthiest, perfectly balanced state. A multitasking powerhouse, Jojoba also speeds cell repair and protects against environmental damage and signs of aging. Studies show it can increase skin suppleness by 45% in just 8 hours.

White Sage

This rare and potent form of sage is found in a very small region of the desert, and we've harnessed its powerful skin clearing abilities. Our exclusive White Sage formulas are shown to minimize oiliness and clear troubled skin quickly and effectively. You'll find this clarifying botanical helps restore blemish prone skin to a clear and healthy state of smooth, flawless beauty.

The Buzz

“ We love the Sia line! Perfect combination of high performance products and good for you ingredients. Everybody there is super helpful and our customers really like the products — they definitely come back to buy them again.”

Hillary L. – spa owner

“ When we decided we wanted to bring in a skincare line, we looked at dozens of brands before deciding on Sia Botanics. Our customers love this line and we love the price points and great customer service.”

Tammi – Museum Shop buyer

“ I brought in a small selection of the Sia Botanics line last year and ended up selling out other lines to make room for the whole Sia line. The products are really unique and customers LOVE them. They deliver quickly and customer service is always helpful.”

Jeanne T. – Health Food Store buyer

“ I like them (skincare products) as close to nature as I can get. Sia Botanics more than fits the bill... My skin instantly feels better!”

Caroline Leavitt – People Magazine book reviewer and bestselling author

“ Just to let you know... after I began using the night cream and eye cream, I received so many compliments on how wonderful, smooth and glowing my skin looked. Thanks for making such great products that are actually good for you!”

G.A. – Arlington, Texas

“ I never really thought that what I put on my skin would make much of a difference but WOW! I cannot believe the change in my skin since starting the Sia line. Honestly, the natural part didn't matter to me but it is amazing that your line performs so much better than anything else I have used AND is natural — you have made me a believer! I'm hooked!”

C.I. – Seattle, WA

“ So glad I found your products at Whole Foods — I had rosacea and these weird little bumps that nothing seemed to help but both have cleared up since using Sia products. Thanks!”

R.M. – Palo Alto, CA
