

The Bluevision Network™
Feed the Power, Feel the Energy

General Overview

...Energy Grows where Energy Flows...

A General Overview of the components that have been created and are ready for implementation to create a multi-faceted and multi-dimensional publicly-installed artistic platform that is to be created by artists around the world, digital and traditional, in order to facilitate the birth of a modern-day technological Robin Hood designed to recognize the rich and help those in need, and leave the distribution of funds by vote in the hands of the people.

All walks of life welcome to participate.

...We live in a world where truth and lies are like pigments in a painting, for every truth that is cast about the painting breathes with vibrancy, but with every lie, not so, for the colorless images just fade, and melt away...

Overview

This is a brief description how all the pieces and parts fit together.

“The Gift” Television Show

A reality-based television show featuring music, art, and entertainment that allows for corporate sponsorship and charitable showcases. The show treatment centers around the creation and building of mixed-media sculptures and artist participations from city to city, along with segments featuring the distribution and installation of the network in public settings.

“Flight of the Angels” Theatrical Banquet

A first-class Broadway-style theatrical music, art, and entertainment show of revolutionary proportions designed to stimulate the energy of your soul, project the power of love, and raise a wealth of charitable revenue for global humanitarian, ecological, and environmental issues.

“Funding Humanity” Annual Festival

An annual Art, Music, and Entertainment festival designed to be implemented in every major metropolitan area while providing significant ongoing opportunities for community-involvement, corporate sponsorships, and charitable funding both inside and outside traditional norms, with the potential of creating a second day of giving on June 25th, or six months to Christmas either way, allowing the general public to vote where the funds from the network should be distributed.

“The Gift” Themed Attraction

This will be constructed just like “The Gift” Television Show Set, and will contain a ride/walkthrough of The Chamber where guests can watch a show in progress, or see the works come to life as they pass by each holodeck. A special unveiling can take place during “The Gift” Television Shows where guests can see the magnificent works of art live and in person. This will take on the look and feel of a global factory for the distribution light, love, and hope.
