Thom Duma Fine Jewelers Announces Sixth Consecutive Year as American Flat Track Partner

With the owner's history as a competitor in the AFT series himself, the Ohio-based retailer is perfectly poised to design custom championship rings for this year's race winners.

WARREN, Ohio, February 1, 2019 (Newswire.com) - For the sixth year in a row, Thom Duma Fine Jewelers (TDFJ) has been named the official jeweler and partner of American Flat Track, a motorcycle track racing series in the United States.

As AFT's official jeweler, Thom Duma and his twin sons Cody and Cory design the championship rings for the winners of the AFT Twins and AFT Singles classes. These custom-designed, one-of-a-kind rings are then presented to the racers at the series year-end banquet.

"Thom Duma is a great supporter of American Flat Track and the entire flat track community," said Michael Lock, the CEO of American Flat Track. "Throughout the past five years of partnership he has contributed enthusiastically to the growth of the sport and the amazing Championship rings he creates are testament to the quality and craftsmanship of his jewelry business."

Duma also shows his passion for the sport in his series of race-inspired jewelry, including racing number pendants, steel shoe pendants, wheel-patterned rings, and more. The aptly-titled "Racer" collection is yet another way that TDFJ's owner stays in touch with his past as a American Flat Track competitor himself.
