Good Old Gold Nominated for Two Categories in Best of Long Island 2019 Competition

The contest, which is hosted by Bethpage Federal Credit Union, pits local businesses against each other to find out how they rank against each other in public opinion. Voting for this year's awards ends on December 15th.

MASSAPEQUA PARK, New York, November 15, 2018

(Newswire.com) - This year, Good Old Gold has been nominated for Bethpage Federal Credit Union's Best of Long Island 2019 awards.

The jewelry retailer, located in Massapequa Park on the South Shore of Long Island, has received nominations in two main categories: in the Services category for Gold Buyer and in the Weddings one for Wedding Jeweler.

This contest, the 14th annual one for the local credit union, showcases businesses and people from all over the area and strives to find the best of the best in each industry or field. Some of the categories this year include clothing, education, arts and entertainment, restaurants, shopping, pets, and services.

Good Old Gold is renowned in the community for their dedication to helping customers with all of their jewelry needs. Whether clients want to design a custom engagement ring, source a one-of-a-kind estate piece for a loved one, or even shop for a diamond from across the country, Good Old Gold's staff always works tirelessly to give them the best service and product possible.

From now until December 15, those who want to see Good Old Gold and other local favorites win can place their votes for Bethpage's Best of LI awards. Vote now by visiting the Best of LI Competition website.
