

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Nashville, TN. - Multi-platinum country music singing star Lila McCann, who had a #1 hit with "I Wanna Fall in Love" in 1998, has done just that. On June 19, 2019, Lila posted heart-felt messages on her Instagram and Facebook pages publicly announcing her coming-out and recent marriage to a wonderful woman who proudly stands by her and with her. In the messages she urged society to choose understanding and love over hate, and compassion over fear.

Lila, McCann's first release, became the highest selling album for a debut country act in 1997. She followed with 1999's gold-certified Something in the Air, 2001's Complete, and 2017's highly successful PledgeMusic campaign Paint This Town. McCann lives in Nashville, Tennessee where she is active in both real estate and LGBTQ communities.

Image by: Brooke Boling

For more information on Lila and her music, visit: www.LilaMcCannMusic.com

For press, booking inquiries, or high-resolution/alternate photos, contact:

Brad Harlan, Lila McCann Music

Brad.LilaMcCannMusic@gmail.com