

New York-Based Northeastern Fine Jewelry Celebrates Opening of New Location With Star-Studded Grand Opening Event.

Already the epitome of fine jewelry service in the Capital Region, Northeastern Fine Jewelry has announced that they will be hosting a grand opening event celebrating the opening of their brand-new Glens Falls, New York showroom.

This grand opening event, scheduled from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Thursday, March 16th, will feature exclusive deals, promotions and a visit from actor Jonathan Goldsmith, who is known for his work as the “The Most Interesting Man in the World.”

As a part of this celebration, customers to the Glens Falls, New York location will be offered the opportunity to take advantage of Northeastern Fine Jewelry’s fabulous wedding band promotion, which offers through April 1st a “Buy One, Get One Free” deal on the purchase of select men and women’s wedding band models.

In addition to the opening of their Glens Falls location, it has also been announced that the Albany location of Northeastern Fine Jewelry will be receiving a state-of-the-art remodel that is scheduled for completion September 2017.

When asked about the opening of Glens Falls location and the remodeling of the Albany showroom, Northeastern Fine Jewelry Vice President Gregg Kelly said, “I’m excited for the opening of a new location and the expansion of an old favorite. These events are just another example of how committed NEFJ is to bringing our New York community the absolute best in contemporary fine jewelry selection.”
