Lewis Jewelers to Introduce Two New Engagement Ring Collections from Jeff Cooper

Located in Ann Arbor, Michigan, Lewis Jewelers – already a leading source for designer-made wedding bands and bridal jewelry – has announced that they will now carry the brand-new Angelina Halo and Arielle engagement ring collections from Jeff Cooper.

Lauded as “the ultimate in engagement rings for illuminating a couple’s commitment to their new life together,” the Angelina Halo and Arielle ring lines reflect Jeff Cooper’s commitment to their design philosophy of “refined simplicity” and “unabashed opulence.” Further, as an authorized Jeff Cooper retailer, at Lewis Jewelers individuals interested in the Angelina Halo or Arielle engagement ring collections can explore from a wide variety of pieces made with platinum, 18-karat and 14-karat gold, as well as that can accommodate center stones of any shape and size.

When asked about the addition of the Jeff Cooper Angelina Halo and Arielle engagement ring collections, Lewis Jewelers team member Keith Largin commented, “we couldn’t be happier to be adding the beautiful Angelina Halo and Arielle collections by Jeff Cooper to the already stellar selection available at Lewis Jewelers!”

The news of the addition of these two Jeff Cooper collections comes just months after Lewis Jewelers announced that they would begin carrying Breitling Swiss-made watches in their Ann Arbor, Michigan showroom.

About Jeff Cooper:

For over 40 years, Jeff Cooper has been creating Bridal Jewelry that honors his design philosophy of refined simplicity. His vision is rooted in New York City's first "Diamond District – downtown in the Bowery – where he honed his considerable skills and refined aesthetic at the jeweler's bench, crafting by hand each piece with the care and eye of a true artisan.

Jeff expanded his reach and inspiration base, traveling the world to get a pulse on the industry, and founded his company in 1976. Throughout the years he has been the recipient of numerous awards, including PGI's "Platinum Designer of the Year". His inspiration is derived from all aspects of his life, from unexpected places, travels and experiences as well as something as simple as everyday fashion or nature's beauty.

Today, working in platinum, gold and diamonds, Jeff's designs radiate with clean lines, elegance and simplicity, with a focus on classics that are always in style. His passion for designing, dedication to perfection and knowledge of the industry results in strategic assortments for retailers that optimize their unique market circumstances and maximize their investment.
