Break Out Consulting Asia’s Kevin Kan Joins Forbes Coaches Council

Forbes Coaches Council Is an Invitation-Only Community for Leading Business and Career Coaches

March 12, 2020, Singapore — Kevin Kan, Break Out Consulting Asia’s Founder & Chief Executive Officer, a multi-award-winning Business, Executive & Leadership Coach, has joined Forbes Coaches Council, an invitation-only community for leading business and career coaches.

Kevin’s selection was based on the depth and diversity of his experience. Criteria for acceptance include a track record of successfully impacting business growth metrics, as well as personal and professional achievements and honors – which includes this month’s award for Best Executive Coaching Firm 2020 at APAC Insider Magazine’s 2020 Singapore Business Awards. The award recognizes the businesses and individuals who truly represent Singapore’s entrepreneurial spirit and embrace its pursuit of perfection.

“We are honored to welcome Kevin into the community,” said Scott Gerber, founder of Forbes Councils, the collective that includes Forbes Coaches Council. “Our mission with Forbes Councils is to bring together proven leaders from every industry, creating a curated, social capital-driven network that helps every member grow professionally and make an even greater impact on the business world.”

As a member of the Council, Kevin joins a prestigious group of leaders who connect and collaborate in a private forum. He will also be tapped to share his expert insights in business articles on Forbes.com, and on published Q&A panels with other experts.

“I’m honored to be joining the Forbes Coaches Council, and I’m really looking forward to helping even more organizations & leaders achieve their goals and business results by integrating employee & customer experiences, which has been the core of my consulting and coaching,” he said. Kevin, who is a staunch believer that everyone needs a coach, added, “I am super excited to be able to share my experience and views to a wider audience via Forbes’ expert panels & media outlets. It’s my belief that by maximizing the potential of individuals and the whole organization, coaching provides clarity on the best way forward to achieve goals.”
