

Lily Blavin accepted into Forbes Business Council

Forbes Business Council Is an Invitation-Only Community for Successful Business Owners and Leaders

March 24, 2021 — Lily Blavin, Founder of Lightning Strikes Productions, an independent production company founded by Lily Blavin. LSP has an ambition for telling stories that contribute to changing the world in a positive way, while touching people's hearts and serving as a powerful, cathartic escape. Blavin and Lightning Strikes Productions are currently in production on a film with an Academy Award Winning Director, Ross Kauffman, as well as owning the rights and adapting the New York Times best selling memoir, A Child Called "It.", has been accepted into the Forbes Business Council, the foremost growth and networking organization for successful business owners and leaders worldwide.

Lily Blavin was vetted and selected by a review committee based on the depth and diversity of her experience. Criteria for acceptance include a track record of successfully impacting business growth metrics, as well as personal and professional achievements and honors.

"We are honored to welcome Lily Blavin into the community," said Scott Gerber, founder of Forbes Councils, the collective that includes Forbes Business Council. "Our mission with Forbes Councils is to bring together proven leaders from every industry, creating a curated, social capital-driven network that helps every member grow professionally and make an even greater impact on the business world."

As an accepted member of the Council, Lily has access to a variety of exclusive opportunities designed to help her reach peak professional influence. She will connect and collaborate with other respected local leaders in a private forum and at members-only events. Lily will also be invited to work with a professional editorial team to share her expert insights in original business articles on Forbes.com, and to contribute to published Q&A panels alongside other experts.

Finally, Lily Blavin will benefit from exclusive access to vetted business service partners, membership-branded marketing collateral, and the high-touch support of the Forbes Councils member concierge team.

"I am so excited, humbled, and honored to be part of the Forbes Business Council. I am eager to connect with fellow council members to make impact across various subject matters." - Lily Blavin
