

Hamden, Connecticut's Rumanoff's Fine Jewelry to Host Exclusive Tacori Sales Event November 4th and 5th.

It was recently announced that Rumanoff's Fine Jewelry, located in Hamden, Connecticut, will be hosting the exclusive "Tacori Scratch Off for Cash Off" event on Friday, November 4th and Saturday, November 5th.

Promised to feature deals, fun, and refreshments including the legendary Tacori-tini, this event will offer Rumanoff's Fine Jewelry customers the unique opportunity to receive a scratch-off ticket that contains an unknown cash discount that will be applied to the purchase of any Tacori designer fine jewelry item.

In addition to the deals that customers will receive as part of the "Scratch Off for Cash Off" event, Rumanoff's Fine Jewelry is also honoring their ongoing Tacori "Fall in Love with Platinum" promotion. Running the course of the fall season, this promotion entitles customers to receive $500 towards the purchase of any platinum Tacori wedding band with the purchase of a Tacori brand platinum engagement ring, as well as $250 towards the purchase of any additional Tacori brand platinum product with the purchase of a platinum Tacori wedding band.

Additionally, there will be a diamond bonus on every platinum Tacori engagement ring. Any customer who purchases a platinum Tacori engagement ring will receive a $500 discount off the price of a 1-carat or larger diamond, and $250 dollars off the price of any diamond weighing under one carat.

When asked about the "Scratch Off for Cash Off" event, Rumanoff's Fine Jewelry vice president Doug Rumanoff expressed excitement saying, "Being that Tacori as a brand is price protected and never discounted, this event is the perfect opportunity for our customers to experience the beautiful rings and jewelry of Tacori, while receiving an even better value with money back in a variety of ways on every purchase!".
