

GMG Jewellers Hosts Annual CrownRing Bridal House Event in March

During this three-day event, customers can purchase their dream wedding bands and engagement rings tax-free, with offerings available from well-respected jewellery brands like Noam Carver, Carlex and Bleu Royale.

SASKATOON, Saskatchewan, February 7, 2019

(Newswire.com) - With wedding season starting in just a few months, now is the time that many engaged couples start thinking about the rings they will wear to commemorate their commitment to each other. As the premier jeweller in Saskatchewan, GMG Jewellers hopes to help customers find the perfect wedding bands for themselves and their partners.

On March 7-9, the Saskatoon-based retailer will host its annual CrownRing bridal house event, featuring wedding band and engagement ring lines from the CrownRing family of brands -- including Noam Carver, Carlex and Bleu Royale.

Attendees who purchase a ring from any of these featured brands during this three-day event will not have to pay taxes on the ring. Those who buy a qualifying men's wedding band will also receive a free tungsten sport band from the Torque collection.

In addition to the bridal jewellery that will be available from these esteemed companies, Noam Carver himself will be present to assist shoppers with any questions and concerns they have. Stop by and ask him about his favorite wedding band styles or consult with him on ideas for a custom ring design.

An RSVP to this event is highly recommended to ensure that every visitor has a chance to meet with a wedding ring specialist from GMG Jewellers. To book an appointment, contact the store by calling (306) 665-8463 or sending an email to gmgjewellers@gmail.com.
