1. WHAT IS TRFFC?

TRFFC is the first-ever project built on Solana with the mission of ending human trafficking and equipping HUMINT operators, OSINT investigators, and support staff with the tools they need to get the job done, as well as support similar organizations fighting on the front lines of human exploitation.

TRFFC is a global, not-for-profit project that is transparent in its ownership, clear in its goals, and designed to be a sustainable, positive impact investment. The future of positive impact investment can and will look like TRFFC; a framework of how blockchain powers the next generation of global change.

TRFFC was created by veteran cyber intelligence and investigations firms SpookyGood and Justice Solutions Group with the intent to do good, and show the power of how the blockchain can and should be used for good.

2. CORE MISSION

TRFFC is an initiative that leverages blockchain technology and NFTs to support the fight against human trafficking. Formed by a team of cyber intelligence experts, former law enforcement, and military special operators, we focus on disrupting trafficking networks through innovative funding and strategic operational capabilities.

Our unique token and NFT projects provide crucial resources for HUMINT operators, OSINT investigators, and support staff, enhancing their ability to carry out real-world missions, effectively.

By integrating blockchain technology, transparent tokenomics, and legitimate operational capabilities, we aim to change the tactics in combating human trafficking through positive impact investing. Our use of blockchain ensures transparency and supports global engagement, helping to fund operations ending human trafficking and support other front-line organizations of victim support.

We invite you to join us in building a global network aimed at putting an end to human trafficking and offering new hope to a troubled world.

3. PROJECTS

TRFFC TOKEN

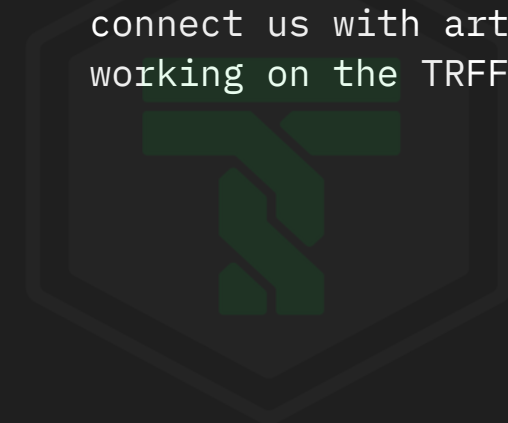

We are using TRFFC's primary token as the foundational launch of all future projects. More information specifically about the token, its technology and its tokenomics are available in later sections.

NFT's

We are planning to launch five NFT projects once the presale of the token has completed, each with a specific mission-oriented goal in mind.

TRFFC's first two NFT collections will be unique, conceptual AI-generated pieces, acknowledging the contributions made by the heroes of the anti-slavery and abolitionist movement in the United States, most notably by the Underground Railroad.

We will be partnering with artists to create unique, one-of-a kind NFTs, and encourage our community to connect us with artists that would be interested in working on the TRFFC NFT project.
