IDENTICAL TWINS JAY MALL AND JAY REMEY
RELEASES NEW EP ALBUM ALTER EGO

The Highly Anticipated EP Album is the First for the Gary Indiana Natives

CHICAGO, IL — Identical Twins Jay Mall and Jay Remy are making their presence known as independent music artist. Known songwriters and producers, the Gary, Indiana natives have finally released their long-awaited studio EP album Alter Ego.

The EP has a total of eight tracks. Alter Ego is the feature track written by JrueSmith, Jay Mall, Jay Remy and produced by PhEv-jr. Jay Mall and Jay Remy incorporate metaphors of biblical analogies supported by historical events from an angle of two different interpretations.

Natives of Gary, Indiana, the home of Michael Jackson, Jay Mall and Jay Remy at the age of eight years old, received their first introduction to music as part of their elementary school band. With the musical influences of Temptation, Michael Jackson, James Swearingen, Missy Elliot, Timberland, Outkast, 2 Chainz and Young Dro the twins began to expand on their interest of all genres of music.

The album has several tracks on Amazon Prime's TV show The G featuring William Johnson (Blue Hill Avenue) and Antione McKay (Empire). After attending Second City Acting (Chicago, IL.), Jay Mall has a reoccurring role as Jamar Smith in all released Seasons of 'The G'; written, created, and produced by Brandon "Billboard B" Bowens.

Coinciding with the release of Alter Ego are the official music videos for 1984 and Hate Love. Both videos were directed by Matt Campbell of Mobula Production, along with Blaine Childers of Bouncing Tiger Studios.

The Alter Ego album is currently available at all digital music providers.
