Halfpricesoft.com is a leading provider of small business software, including check writing & printing software, payroll software, employee attendance tracking software and W2 1009 software. It continues to grow with its philosophy that small business owners need affordable, user friendly, super simple, and totally risk-free software.

"For more than ten years I was a programmer and consultant," says Dr Ge. "During that time I discovered many small business owners often had one thing in common, regardless of their industry: They were afraid to touch new accounting applications and payroll software programs because they were usually too big or too complex for their needs."

With that in mind, Dr Ge went to work on what he calls a simple but effective program that's easy-to-use and geared to small business accounting issues. The new edition of ezCheckPrinting, the check designing, writing and printing software, is designed for use by non-accountants with minimal computer skills. Users simply download and install the check software from www.halfpricesoft.com, select the action they want to take, and follow the point-and-click instructions on the screen.

Small business owners love ezCheckPrinting MICR & laser check printing software because it is simple and easy to use, handles all their check printing needs - including customized layouts - and is very affordable. The main features of this MICR & laser check writing and printing software include:
