Jewelry Design Center Offers Expanded Diamond Selection During Diamond Days of April Promotion

First-time buyers and jewelry enthusiasts alike are encouraged to stop by the largest diamond supplier in the Pacific Northwest to take advantage of their limited-time offerings this month.

WASHINGTON, April 12, 2019 (NewsWire.com) - To celebrate the April birthstone, Jewelry Design Center will be holding a promotion to help diamond lovers find the ideal stone for their engagement ring or heirloom piece.

The Diamond Days of April promotion, which ends on the 30th, allows customers to shop for rare, large, and fancy shaped diamonds that the retailer typically does not have on hand. Furthermore, esteemed brands Hearts on Fire and Forevermark will also send in specialty items that will be available for purchase at the event.

Stonecutters from around the world have contributed select diamonds from their inventory just for this promotion. This allows visitors to explore diamonds from a variety of sources, all of them backed by Jewelry Design Center's famous Best Price First guarantee and 100-Day Cash Back Return policy.

In addition to their expanded diamond selection, the jewelry retailer will host diamond buyers to help shoppers sell or trade up their existing diamonds for something more impressive. Jewelry Design Center's own in-house team of jewelers will also be on hand to set any newly purchased diamond into their setting.

To learn more about the event or the diamond selection that will be available at the event, contact Jewelry Design Center's Spokane location at 509-487-5905 and their Kennewick boutique at 509-579-0456.
