Save 20% Off on All Wedding Bands During Medawar Jewelers' Three-Day Wedding Band Event

The event, which starts this Thursday at all of the retailer's Michigan-based showrooms, will help shoppers find the wedding rings of their dreams at a fraction of the cost.

MICHIGAN, June 5, 2019 (NewsWire.com) - With wedding season in full swing, Medawar Jewelers is here to help any couples heading to the altar in the near future with their wedding plans. From Thursday, June 6th to Saturday, June 8th the jewelry retailer will host their Wedding Band Event.

Shoppers who visit any Medawar Jewelers location in West Lansing, Jackson, Okemos, Portage, or Brighton, Michigan will receive 20% off on all wedding bands, regardless of brand or design. This allows couples to save big on the wedding rings of their dreams, without having to sacrifice on style or craftsmanship.

With popular brands like Kirk Kara, Verragio, Noam Carver, and Zeghani on hand, customers are sure to find the wedding band that best fits their personal taste and budget.

Look to Kirk Kara and Verragio for intricate, eye-catching styles that rely on detailed engraving and scrollwork to set themselves apart. Meanwhile, Noam Carver is ideal for the understated bride who appreciates the look of a dainty wedding ring.

And for those who aren't sure what kind of style they prefer, take a look at Zeghani's diverse selection of rings. Each collection from this unique designer appeals to a certain fashion style, and with lines devoted to the "Blindingly Beautiful" and "Delicate Diva," it's easy to find the line that fits best.

Opportunities like this don't happen often at Medawar Jewelers, so those interested in purchasing a wedding band or two should make sure to stop by the retailer during this three-day event.
