

Stephan Graf the Master Detailer.

Is known for his skill, his precision and his affinity for the care and preservation of the world's finest cars. "I've always been a car man. And for the past twenty plus years I've been honing my skills, detailing some of the most luxurious cars known to man." says Stephan. He has been called upon internationally for his pronounced skills. Says Stephan: "I am both proud and grateful that my passion has led me here, to do what I love and to make the owners of these magnificent cars fall in love again and again".

Reputation goes a long way in this business and Stephan is sought out time and time again for the care and attention he provides to every car he touches or provides counsel on. For Stephan, like Zymol, this is more than a business. Cars are our life – they're our passion.

Let Stephan play a part in the life of your beautiful cars. He is a Master Technician who is expert to serve, restore, preserve and transform.
